Dear Mr Kahn:

We represent Hewlett Packard Company in the above referenced matter.

While you were employed with Novadigm, you worked on a provisional patent application that the above matter is based on. The provisional application was later filed in the PCT, and the above matter is the resulting US application. Novadigm was subsequently purchased by Hewlett Packard (HP), along with all IP rights.

The assignment document you signed while employed with Novadigm assigns all rights to the application and subsequent applications to Novadigm (now owned by HP).

In order to file an application in the US, a declaration must be signed by all inventors. When the Novadigm application was filed, it was done so without a declaration, so I am enclosing one now for your signature. The same will be sent to Joseph Fitzgerald, Phillip Burgard and Harry Moeller.

Please sign this document and fax a copy of it back to us at (612) 659-9344, then mail the original to us to store with the file.

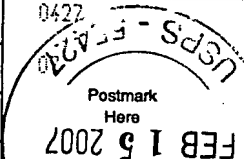

If you have any questions or concerns regarding this case, please do not hesitate to contact me at (612) 236-0120. Thank you in advance for your assistance!

~~Very truly yours,~~

Edward J. Brooks III (Jay)

Dear Mr Kahn:

This is our third attempt to reach you. We are requesting that you sign the enclosed Declaration for the above referenced matter, which is based on the provisional application you worked on while employed at Novadigm. This declaration is required of all patent applications filed in the US.

We have received the signed documents from Joseph Fitzgerald, Phil Burgard, and Harry Moeller. I am enclosing a copy of their signed documents with this letter. Once we receive your document, we will file it with the USPTO to get the application moving again.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding this case, please do not hesitate to contact me at (612) 236-0120. Thank you in advance for your assistance!
